

Sometimes Blind - Acoustic:

Sometimes Blind - Acoustic is the stripped down version of the alternative rock band, Sometimes Blind. Singer, Casey Martin, and guitarist, Dan Van Ordstrand, both natives of the Eugene, Oregon area, form the core of this acoustic set. At times they are accompanied by other members of the band. They perform mostly original music, but throw in some covers of some of their favorites bands and artists, including The Allman Brothers, Tom Petty, and Sublime, among others. They will have CDs of the band's original music for sale during the performance.
